Mr. Roger Johnson
Assistant Division Chief
Division of Water Rights
State Water Resources Control Board
P.O. Box 2000
Sacramento, CA 95812-2000

Dear Mr. Johnson:

I am currently acting as trustee for the Darcy R. James Trust. As part of that duty, I am responsible for the business activities of the trust. The Trust has a water right to a diversion on Orcutt Creek, tributary to the Santa Clara River, located in Ventura county (SW1/4 of SE1/4 of Section 13, T4N, R21W, SB&M). The previous Supplemental Statements of Water Diversion and Use dated May 27, 1997 were statements S001842, S001843, S001844.

The new address of record for the Trust should be changed to 905 Boyd Street, Coeur d'Alene, ID 83814. The previous address (Rt. 2, Box 404, Grangeville, ID 83530) is currently a rental property. If additional forms need to be completed to effect this change of address, please address them to the address shown above.

A second purpose of this letter is to ensure that the water right is renewed once it expires. However, we are not sure of the date of this expiration. Any information regarding the date of expiration and required forms to reapply for the water right would be greatly appreciated.

If this letter is not sufficient documentation to request a change of address and information regarding the water right renewal date, please indicate what additional information is required. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Stephen P. James
Trustee

GENERAL INFORMATION PERTAINING TO WATER RIGHTS IN CALIFORNIA

There are two principal types of surface water rights in California. They are riparian and appropriative rights.

A riparian right enables an owner of land bordering a natural lake or stream to take and use water on his riparian land. Riparian land must be in the same watershed as the water source and must never have been severed from the sources of supply by an intervening parcel without reservation of the riparian right to the severed parcel. Generally, a riparian water user must share the water supply with other riparian users. Riparian rights may be used to divert the natural flow of a stream but may not be used to store water for later use or to divert water which originates in a different watershed, water previously stored by others, return flows from use of groundwater, or other "foreign" water to the natural stream system.

An appropriative right is required for use of water on non-riparian land and for storage of water. Generally, appropriative rights may be exercised only when there is a surplus not needed by riparian water users. Since 1914, new appropriators have been required to obtain a permit and license from the State. Appropriative rights can be granted to waters "foreign" to the natural stream system.

Statements of Water Diversion and Use must be filed by riparian and pre-1914 appropriative water users as set forth in Water Code section 5100 with specific exceptions. The filing of a statement (1) provides a record of water use, (2) enables the State to notify such users if someone proposes a new appropriation upstream from their diversions, and (3) assists the State to determine if additional water is available for future appropriators.

The above discussion is provided for general information. For more specific information concerning water rights, please contact an attorney or write to this office. We have several pamphlets available. They include: (1) Statements of Water Diversion and Use, (2) Information Pertaining to Water Rights in California, and (3) Appropriation of Water in California.

Statements of water Diversion and Use must be filed by riparian and pre-1914 appropriative water users. The filing of a statement (1) provides a record of water use, (2) enables the State to notify such users if someone proposes a new appropriation upstream from their diversion, and (3) assists the State to determine if additional water is available for future appropriators.

The above discussion is provided for general information. For more specific information concerning water rights, please contact an attorney or write to this office. We have several pamphlets available. They include:

GENERAL INFORMATION PERTAINING TO WATER RIGHTS IN CALIFORNIA

There are two principal types of surface water rights in California. They are riparian and appropriative rights.

A riparian right enables an owner of land bordering a natural lake or stream to take and use water on his riparian land. Riparian land must be in the same watershed as the water source and must never have been severed from the source of supply by an intervening parcel without reservation of the riparian right to the severed parcel. Generally, a riparian water user must share the water supply with other riparian users. Riparian rights may be used to divert the natural flow of a stream but may not be used to store water for later use or to divert water which originates in a different watershed, or return flows from use of groundwater.

An appropriative right is required for use of water on nonriparian land and for storage of water. Generally, appropriative rights may be exercised only when there is a surplus not needed by riparian water users. Since 1914 new appropriators have been required to obtain a permit and license from the State.

Statements of Water Diversion and Use must be filed by riparian and pre-1914 appropriative water users. The filing of a statement (1) provides a record of water use, (2) enables the State to notify such users if someone proposes a new appropriation upstream from their diversion, and (3) assists the State to determine if additional water is available for future appropriators.

As successors to Max Rudolph, we filed 3 statements of water diversion and use, Nos. SOO1842, SOO1843 and SOO1844 in 1995. It is our understanding that these claims must be updated annually, but to date we have received no paper work for 1996.

Please let us know the status of our water rights, and send appropriate forms for us to complete, if necessary. Files are up to date.

Thank you.
